

COOKIE POLICY

This Cookie Policy explains how sfconsult.by ("sfconsult.by", "we", "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our Website.

This Policy is an integral part of our Privacy Policy.

By using this Website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

1. TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

Cookies are small text files placed on a storage device, which can be read by a web server in the domain from which the cookie has been generated. They often consist of alphanumeric strings which uniquely identify your computer, but may also contain other information.

We may use cookies and similar technologies to store and maintain your preferences and settings to perform log-in, provide relevant advertising, fight fraud, analyse the Services we provide and perform other reasonable tasks.

2. WHAT COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES ARE USED FOR

We use our own- and third-party cookies for a variety of purposes. Some cookies are required for the normal operation of our Website. These are known as 'important' or 'strictly necessary' cookies. Other cookies record information about choices you make on the Website and allow us and third parties we work with to customise our Website according to your preferences. These are known as 'operational' or 'functional' cookies. For example, we use cookies to tailor the content we distribute or display on our site and to personalise your experience with our site and improve its functionality. We also allow our users to set cookies and similar tracking technologies as part of their use of our service to track and analyse the activities of their subscribers. Finally, third parties set cookies through our Website for advertising, analytical and other purposes.

3. HOW TO MANAGE COOKIES

You have the right to accept or reject cookies.

You can control the use of cookies through your browser settings. All browsers are different from one another. To understand how to disable cookies in your browser, please check the help menu.

Please note that by disabling cookies you may not be able to use some of the functions, services, tools and applications on our Website.

4. CHANGES TO THE COOKIE POLICY

We may update this Policy as necessary, for example, to reflect changes in the cookies used and for operational, legal or regulatory reasons.

We encourage you to regularly review the provisions of this Policy to stay informed about the cookies and related technologies that we use.

If you have any questions about the use of cookies or other technologies, please contact us at info@sfconsult.by.
